Córdova, and Andrea Mutti! After her brother's murder, Paula was whisked away to an estate where she could no longer be an active threat to anyone. But when she discovers who is behind her brother's death, Paula must turn to her father's allies and solve the mystery of her mother's death. But the attack on her family was no isolated incident...can Paula stand against all of them, to save her mother's soul, her father, and her own sanity? If you've never read Paula, now's a great time to start! This title is book 2 in our Roger Garces & Linda Quiñones Yarbrough series. And, even if you read the first book, you'll find plenty more intrigue here, plus a story that's just for you and your family! All-new! A group of mercenaries, an army, and a brilliant woman on a mission. In the middle of a conflict in the greater world, a team of thieves steals the cargo of an entire military convoy. Who do they want? What do they want? And why? I'm thrilled to offer the second volume in what's shaping up to be a series full of great stories featuring characters and a world that are ripe for adventure! You don't want to miss this one! Can you build anything better than the Alexandria Spheres? Unfortunately, we can't stop the imminent threat of the Spheres from being deployed until we learn the secret behind the Spheres and the bloodlines that are vying for control of the project. In the meantime, we have to deal with a war brewing among the alien races and mercenaries who work on the Spheres. Can we stop the Spheres from being used against us? This tie-in story contains scenes taking place in the original book as well as new material of all kinds, including: an unseen character, an expanded world, and a look at one of the most heart-pounding moments in the book! Can I just say, I'm totally in love with Michael Evans's work? Seriously, the man can do no wrong for me in terms of character art, and his hard-hitting story, characters, and dialogue have all been standouts for me. So when he was approached to do some sketch work for a project, I was all ears 82157476af
